Jack London's Fair Partner to Wed Millionaire

Miss Anna Strunsky, who at twenty-five, is known to fame as a writer, a speaker and a collaborator with Jack London, recently went to St. Petersburg on a journalistic errand connected with the revolutionary propaganda. There she met William English Walling, who was travelling in Europe to study the immigration problem. Their engagement has just been announced and they will be married in Paris next week.

Many people Miss Strunsky is best known by the fact that while a girl student at Leland Stanford, Jr. University, she helped Jack London write "The Kempton-Wace Letters," a book which made a considerable sensation when it was published in 1903.

cases shall be taken up and disposed of in their order, irrespective of the manner in which preceding cases may be disposed of, unless otherwise specially ordered.

"2. When a case is reached on the calendar and neither party appears, the case will go to the foot of the calendar, or be continued for the term or dismissed, as in the discretion of the Court may appear proper.

"3. When a case is reached and but one party appears, the trial shall nevertheless proceed, or such order shall be made therein as may be proper.

"4. Application for a continuance or for other disposition of a case, must be made in writing and copies of the moving papers served on the other party twenty-four hours before the hearing thereon, which hearing shall be noted for the hour of 9 o'clock a. m., and also prior to the time when the case, in its order on the calendar, would, otherwise, be reached for trial.

"5. All Jury Civil cases appearing upon the calendar for said Term are hereby assigned to the Third Judge of this Court.

"6. All Jury-waived cases, Civil and Criminal, appearing upon the calendar for said Term are hereby assigned to the First Judge of this Court.

"8. During said Term upon application to the presiding Judge, all cases not appearing upon the calendar may be placed thereon and assigned by said presiding Judge to either of the other Judges, as in his discretion may seem proper; whereupon said cases shall come within and shall be governed by the provisions of this order."

THE MISTAKE OF YOUR LIFE.

Do not number among the mistakes of your life that of neglecting to procure a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Some of your family may be suddenly attacked with cramp colic or diarrhoea, which are always prevalent during the warm weather, and immediate relief is then necessary. Get it today, it may save a life. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.

MUCH FOR SUPERVISOR.

William Mutch, the contractor, has stated that he is willing to run for Supervisor in the Fifth District on the Republican ticket. It is not yet known what the leading men of the party will think of it.
